

HISTORY
OF
PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS,
1861-5;

PREPARED
IN COMPLIANCE WITH ACTS OF THE LEGISLATURE,

BY SAMUEL P. BATES,
MEMBER OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

But if any among you, though agreeing in these statements, thinks that Philip will maintain his power, by having occupied forts and havens and the like, this is a mistake. Impossible is it—impossible, Athenians,—to acquire a solid power by injustice, and perjury, and falsehood. Such things last for once, or for a short period, may be they blossom fairly with hope; but in time they are discovered, and drop away. As a house, a ship or the like, ought to have the lowest parts firmest, so in human conduct, I ween, the principle and foundation should be just and true.—DEMOSTHENES—SECOND OLYNTHIAC.
